Dear Valued Members,

It has been some time (unknown) since the IWMC members database has been updated.

Having installed a new IdealPOS system we are finding quite a number of members not listed or have incorrect details. We request your assistance to get this up to date. There are several ways for you to do this:

- You may click on this link and update your details online:
Members Contact Information Form
- Ring us at 03 218 8693
- Email us at office@iwmc.co.nz

Another favour. A number of members don't seem to be receiving our newsletter, therefore if you should hear or know of a member in this situation, please ask them to contact the office or forward this newsletter to them. You can also obtain the membership forms from our bar staff.

As the membership database is the life blood of our wonderful club, we know you will assist us with this request.

Here is the good bit.

On the 31 May we will draw five members' names only from the updated members' forms received, who will receive a complimentary carvery meal for two plus two glasses of wine.

Many thanks,

Brian Stewart
Club President

SECTIONS UPDATE: 8 BALL

Invercargill Workingmen's Club Inc

Well our 2026 Easter Bash
over the weekend was a great hit!

Congratulations to Paul Epps who took it out this year against Alley Kapo – what a great final!

Also a big congrats to Wei for winning the Trophy Event against Allan Pine.

Monday wrapped things up with our fun day tournament, Drawn Scotch Pairs – a great day filled with plenty of banter and laughs.

A big thank you to Karen Edwards for running the control table, and to Brian and his committee for hosting such a great tournament.

Thanks again to everyone who came along and made it such an awesome weekend!

SECTIONS UPDATE: SNOOKER

Snooker section AGM Tuesday 21st April 6:30PM

We encourage all interested members to attend. This is your chance to express concerns or ideas relating to the enhancement of the sport. And also ask, to consider a position on committee.

A special word of "thanks" to management, getting the tables refurbished, really appreciated by the players across the board.

The interclub season has started, played on Monday evenings, the IWMC teams have an enviable record in this event and have a great chance of retaining the title.

Thursday snooker evenings have been ticking over with numbers expected to increase as the cooler weather sets in... 6:30 pm Thursday kick off, good format, visitors welcome. Tuesday's 1pm, it's the over 50's back in action. This popular format proved to be well supported last year and look forward to seeing new and familiar faces... once again visitors welcome. That includes you too Fred..!

The Southland A Grade Snooker Championship was held in Gore recently where several IWMC cueists were in action. However there was only one player that stood out, the in-form Tony McMullien, just too classy for the opposition dispatching favoured competitors with ease. Tony posted numerous breaks over 30 taking the high break prize with a well compiled 65. Awesome stuff Tony, congratulations.

The world champs are ramping up with "judgement day" set for Thursday (London) time.

This is great viewing and will be worth a look. There's been some upsets along the way and some fantastic matches, one in particular, Luca Brecel vs Chan Bingyu, recommend checking it out on y/t... it's going to be a very tough road to the final ... Ronnie will be trying for his eighth world title but faces stiff competition. I would advise him to "Aim Straight & Concentrate" but I think he's got that covered!!
