Quiz Night

Most of our long term regulars were unavailable for this week's quiz but our newer regulars came out in force.

Welcome to our newest team, The Comeback Kids, who came for the first time this week. They used to quiz at the Newfield's Sunday night BION quiz so they are well used to the competition. They, under a different name, used to be my team's nemesis!

The quizzing was fierce this week with the lead changing hands often before Something Witty took out the lead, the trophy and the lollipops.

There were some "technical difficulties" resulting in the scores for round 1 missing from the announced totals. I have added the missing points to the total below and the placings remain unchanged.

Something Witty: 98
WSP: 92
Comeback Kids: 91
Wannabes: 80

Most teams received the bonus 3 points for first timers this week so we are all up to date and looking forward to welcoming more new teams to join us Tuesdays at 6.30ish.

Next Tuesday is Bastille Day so there's a bonus point for anyone who adds something French to their ensemble or comes dressed as Napoleon, Edith Piaf, Marie Curie, Asterix... The bonus points are limited to 3 points for individuals but if the whole team participates then they'll receive 5 bonus points.

Rumour has it there's a can-can competition during the drinks break...

If you knew which year Cardinal Robert Prevost became Pope Leo XIV (2026) or what year the Black Caps lost a heartbreaking Cricket World Cup in England (2019), if you can tell a Monet from Van Gogh (we're the only quiz that will penalise you a point for pronouncing it Van Go) and you already knew that Motown is a portmanteau of Motor and Town then we've got the quiz for you!

Don't forget to go to Believe it or Not's Facebook site each Monday where they post three cryptic clue questions with a photo so that you can research three answers before you arrive at that week's quiz.

In addition, collect three bonus points the first time you quiz with us. That's a total of 6 points to start you off.

Quiz is held around the dance floor and South East Lounge on Tuesdays at 6.30ish. See you there!
